

I fully support allowing Amateur Radio Operators being allowed on new bandsegments of 136 KHZ and 5 MHZ. There would be greater experimentation and public service support in the event of a communications emergency by using the 5 MHZ band.Thankyou for considering these new bands.